Notes for Exhibitors

‘N.A.S’ = “Not according to Schedule”. It must be terribly disappointing when an exhibit, so obviously better than all the rest, is marked with these fatal letters by the judges and does not get a prize, whilst a less deserving entry does. It is just to avoid heartbreak and frustration that we say repeatedly: “Do check that your entries are exactly according to schedule”. Yet every year entries are disqualified – 11 shallots instead of 10; beautiful flower arrangement, but oversized; What’s that Dahlia doing in a vase of Hardy Perennials?”

The Judges have to be strict or some other competitor may justifiably complain. It’s all too easy to slip up, but we want the prizes to go to the best entries, not to those who only get them through other people’s mistakes. So, once again, PLEASE READ THE SCHEDULE CAREFULLY AND CHECK YOUR ENTRIES TO BE SURE THEY CONFORM.

If you are dissatisfied with a judge’s ruling please adopt the procedure in rule 6.

Note; Antirrhinums are not to be classed as Annuals.
